Right of Subrogation and Refund

The injured Employee may incur expenses due to injuries for which benefits are paid by the Employer’s Occupational Injury Benefit Plan or Group Policy. If the injuries are caused by the wrongful act or negligence of another person, then the Employee may have a claim against that other person for payment of expenses. We will be subrogated to all rights the Employee may have against the other person and the Employee must repay us out of the recovery made from: (a) the other person; or (b) the other person’s insurer; or (c) any carrier providing uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage. The Employee agrees to assist us in any recoveries and not to take any action that would prejudice our subrogation rights. Our subrogation rights only apply to the amounts paid by the Occupational Injury Benefit Plan or Group Policy.
